Carpenter 'linked to LeT, Pune terror suspect' held in J&K

SUSHANT KULKARNI
PUNE, JUNE 2

Officials from Maharashtra Anti-Terrorism Squad (ATS) have arrested a wanted suspect, Afab Hussain Shah, from Kishitwar in Jammu and Kashmir in connection to the case in which Mohammed Junaid (28) was arrested from Pune last month over his alleged links to banned terror outfit Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT). The ATS has claimed that Shah was the link between Junaid, who allegedly recruited youth and raised funds for the terror outfit, and a LeT operative based outside India.

For the last three days, three teams of Maharashtra ATS were conducting investigations in Kargil, Ganderbal and Srinagar areas with assistance from the Jammu and Kashmir Police. On Wednesday evening, an ATS team was deployed in Kishitwar and it apprehended 28-year-old Afab Hussain Shah. He was produced before a court where his transit remand was sought. The court granted the ATS three-day transit remand," said a senior officer from the Squad.

"Shah was born and brought up in Kishitwar and is a carpenter by profession. His family owns land in the area. He is believed to be the link between Junaid Mohammed and a LeT operative based in a foreign country," said the officer.

On May 23, state ATS had arrested Mohammed Junaid Mohammed Aza, who had been working at the shop of a scrap dealer in Dapodi. The investigators had at the time identified three more alleged terror operatives from Jammu and Kashmir, who were allegedly in contact with Junaid either directly or through phone-based messenger applications. Junaid hails from Khamaqon taluka in Buldhana district of Maharashtra. According to ATS sources, Shah was being brought to Pune on Thursday night and he will be produced before a local court on Friday, where the ATS will seek his custody for further probe and interrogation. Along with Shah, the ATS had named Hamidullah Zargar from Kulgam and Omar as the other wanted accused in the case.

While officials refused to divulge more details on Shah's alleged role in the case, the ATS had earlier told the Pune court during Junaid's custody hearing that Shah and two others were part of an alleged conspiracy to organise funding, recruitment and arms training of youths into the LeT. The ATS has claimed that the group intended to target sensitive locations in India. The ATS said they had received an intelligence input in December last year, and their investigators had since been tracking Junaid's activities. Investigation revealed that Junaid had changed his SIM at least 10 times and had opened five different Facebook accounts, through which he was trying to approach youths as potential recruits for LeT.

Following the arrest of Junaid, the ATS started probing multiple leads, including at least five Facebook accounts which were allegedly used by the suspects to communicate with youths and encourage them to join the banned outfit by 'instigating communal sentiments'.

Not travelling to Abu Dhabi for IIFA awards, Chakraborty tells court

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, JUNE 2

AFTER BEING granted permission to travel abroad for the IIFA Awards, actor Rhea Chakraborty on Thursday informed a special court that she does not wish to travel. Chakraborty informed the court that while making an application last week seeking permission for traveling to Abu Dhabi, she was not aware that a lookout notice was issued by an agency against her.

In view of the time, the applicant is not desirous to avail passport and travel abroad for a limited period. Considering the submissions... the respondent investigating agency (NCB) to take note of it and is hereby directed not to issue the passport to the applicant," the court said in its order on Friday.

The court had allowed Chakraborty to travel to Abu Dhabi between June 2 and June 5 after she submitted that she was invited by the IIFA director to walk on the green carpet, give an award and conduct an interaction at the awards function. Chakraborty had also submitted that due to the criminal case, she had suffered financial setbacks and her acting career too was affected when she needed opportunities like attending the award function.

Chakraborty was arrested in September 2020 by the NCB in connection with a drug case filed following the death of actor Sushant Singh Kapur. She was granted bail by the Bombay High Court in October 2020.

A lookout notice is issued to ensure that an individual wanted or absconding in a case is not able to leave the country. Other agencies including the CBI and the ED had probed Chakraborty in connection with the actor's death. A case was also filed by the Patna police, which was transferred to the CBI. No chargesheet or report has been filed by the agencies regarding the progress of their probe.

Police seek death penalty for 33-yr-old who 'raped, murdered' 8-year-old girl

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, JUNE 2

THE MUMBAI Police Thursday sought the death penalty for a 33-year-old man booked for the rape and murder of a minor girl, eight months after he was released from prison after serving a sentence for the sexual assault of another minor in the same area.

Special public prosecutor Vaibhav Bagade submitted before the court that the repeat offence by the convict, Vadivelal Gundappa Devendra, showed there was no scope of reformation. Devendra was found guilty by the court earlier this week on charges including rape, murder and relevant sections of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act. Bagade also submitted that Devendra was convicted and sentenced to seven years in jail for his earlier offence committed in 2013 but was granted premature release after five years under a scheme, after which this offence was committed.

Lawyer Sunanda Nandewar, representing Devendra, said there was no direct evidence in the case against him. She also submitted that since the case was based on circumstantial evidence, death penalty cannot be awarded.

In April 2013, the nine-year-old victim's body was discovered in a septic tank, hours after she went missing from near her residence. The police claimed that CCTV footage and other evidence had pointed towards Devendra's role.

The accused have been booked under Indian Penal Code sections 325 (voluntarily causing grievous hurt), 323 (voluntarily causing hurt), 427 (mischievous causing damage of fifty rupees), 143 (punishment), 147 (rioting) and 149 (every member of unlawful assembly guilty of offence committed in prosecution of common object).

Special Judge HC Shende will pronounce the sentence on Friday.

THE SHIV Sena on Thursday attacked the Centre over the targeted killings of people in Jammu and Kashmir, saying the BJP-led government is unable to protect the citizens.

Sena MP Sanjay Raut said that the Prime Minister and the Union home minister are engaged in politics and elections while they need to pay attention to the situation in Kashmir.

The editorial in Sena mouthpiece Saamana said, "...the BJP, which targeted Congress and other parties over the displacement ment of Kashmiri Pandits in the 1990s, is in power at the Centre and is now answerable for the series of killings in Kashmir under its rule."

"Jammu and Kashmir is under President's Rule. Then why is there still violence? Why have not the targeted killings by terrorists stopped? Why are Hindus, Sikhs and Muslims being killed openly? The BJP was questioning the previous governments on these issues. Now, the killings in Jammu and Kashmir continue in your regime, which is why the time has come for Kashmiri Pandits to issue an ultimatum of 'mass migration'," said party told BJP.

Raut said there has been no change in the situation in Jammu and Kashmir even after the abrogation of Article 370 and the ending of the state under President's Rule.

"Kashmiri Pandits, soldiers and Muslim police officers are being killed, but the government is unable to protect them. The Prime Minister and the Union home minister are engaged in politics and elections. They need to pay attention to national security and the situation in Kashmir. Unfortunately, they are unable to see the anger among the Kashmiris because they are busy taking on opponents... and misusing central agencies against them," he added.

Inspector General (Nanded Range), said, "Rinda was in touch with one of the arrested accused and the shooters over phone." The police said the accused arrested on Tuesday are conspirators. They have been identified as Indrapringsh alias Sunny P Tiratsingh Major, Mukteshwar alias Golu Vijay Mangalve, Satnam Singh alias Satta P Dalbir Singh, Harjotsingh alias Sonu Pranjana P. Satnam Singh Bajwa, Gurmukhsingh alias Guri P Sevaksingh Gill and Karjatsingh alias P Raghisir Singh Sahu.

The last accused, Harjotsingh alias Babbar Singh Sahu, was arrested from Patla in Punjab on Wednesday. All are residents of Nanded.
