

Two get 7-yr jail for rape attempt on Dutch teen

SAILEE DHAYALKAR
MUMBAI, AUGUST 13

THE SESSIONS court on Monday sentenced two auto-rickshaw drivers to seven-year imprisonment for attempting to rape an 18-year-old student from the Netherlands. The woman was in Mumbai for a student exchange programme.

On Friday, Additional Sessions Judge H.C. Shendge had convicted two accused Anil Yadav (34) and Rajpati Nishad (27) under sections 341 (wrongful restraint), 392 (robbery), 376 read with 511 (attempt to rape), 354 read with 511 (attempt to assault or criminal force to woman with intent to outrage her modesty) of the Indian Penal Code.

The court, while handing out sentence, also asked them to cough up a fine of Rs 5,500 each, said investigating officer, Dhanaji Nalawade. The prosecution examined 24 witnesses in the case.

Nalawade told The Indian Express that he had informed the girl that she had to record her statement before the court. Instead of video conferencing, Nalawade said he had persuaded the girl to visit the court in person and record the statement and he was surprised that she agreed to it. Nalawade wrote to the Netherlands Embassy and requested them to make arrangement for her travel, so that she could visit Mumbai and record her statement.

According to the prosecution, the victim was in India on a tourist visa from September 15, 2011 for a student exchange programme in Mumbai. She was living in an apartment at Mulund. In the evening of December 26, 2011, the girl visited her friend's house at Vasai and after spending sometime with two friends there, they dropped her near Dahisar check naka, from where she took an auto-rickshaw for home around 12.50 am.

According to police, auto driver, Yadav, purposely took the Aarey Colony route even after the girl kept telling him to take the Western Express Highway. After crossing Aarey toll naka, Yadav parked his auto and asked his friend Nishad, also an auto driver, to join him. Nishad sat beside Yadav and they left from there. While on the way, the girl again told Yadav to take the Western Express Highway route, but he did not pay any attention to her.

According to police, both the accused took the girl to the woods, where they attempted to rape her. Her screams scared them off, however, they ran away after grabbing her phone and purse. The girl then went to the nearest building in the Aarey Colony and sought to inform the police. She approached Vanrai police station and filed a complaint. She was then sent for a medical examination.

On December 29, 2011, the police led a trap at Dahisar check naka and arrested Nishad. Nalawade said they arrested Yadav from Uttar Pradesh a day later. The police recovered the girl's mobile phone, SIM card, passport and leather purse.

In January 2015, the girl had visited Mumbai to record her statement in the in-camera trial. After recording her statement, she identified both the accused in the court.

Public prosecutor, Kalpana Hire, told the court that the victim was a foreigner and the accused were well aware about it and the offence they were committing. By attempting to rape a foreigner, they have committed an offence against the nation.

SHEENA BORA MURDER CASE

Didn't ask Indrani for money to buy 5 dogs, Mekhail tells special CBI court

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, AUGUST 13

IN THE Sheena Bora murder case, defence advocates representing Indrani Mukerjea on Monday questioned her son Mekhail, who is appearing as a prosecution witness, on his expenses, including those on cars and dogs.

Mekhail was first asked about the number of cars he has owned so far to which he responded by stating his car purchases from 2011 to 2015.

Mekhail was also asked about his fondness for dogs by advocate Sudeep Pasbola, in the special CBI court. Mekhail told the court that in 2012, he had purchased a British Mastiff for Rs 20,000-25,000. He said he bought the dog with the amount he got by selling a car he had. "It is not correct to say that despite having four dogs, I purchased a British Mastiff. It is not correct to say that I have asked for money from Indrani to purchase these five dogs and Indrani had given me the said money. It is not correct to say that these were costly cars and dogs and I have deliberately under stated their prices. It is not correct to say that I was fond of costly things and therefore, always in need of money and that I used to demand money from Indrani for my expensive hobbies," Mekhail said while answering questions during cross-examination.

The cross-examination will continue on Tuesday.
