Clerk arrested in graft case

MUMBAI: The Anti Corruption Bureau trapped and arrested a 56-year-old upper division clerk, Hanmantrao Suryavanshi at the Urban Land Ceiling Department at Bandra office on Thursday for demanding a bribe from a complainant to replace the state government's name with a Borivli-based housing society's name - New Matt Cornell Heights. According to the complainant, the incident occurred in July last year, and after proper verifications of the allegations, a trap was laid and the arrests were made. -Staff Reporter

MEGA PARKING LOTS OUTSIDE THANE STATION TO DECONGEST EXTERIOR

STAFF REPORTER

To eliminate unauthorised parking and decongest the area around railway stations, Central Railway is planning a massive parking lot for ve-hicles outside, starting with Thane station. "This mega parking lot will enable pas-sengers to park their vehicles, eliminate unauthorised parking and decongest the station premises," said an official

Railway officials said the parking facility will accom-modate nearly 4,200 vehicles and is expected to generate Rs 1.47 lakh in revenue every address. The driver allegedly asked the police to take Sarkar in custody for "he was saying he was a Communist and was talking about burning the country"

Secretary of the All India Progressive

Women's Asso ciation Kavita Krishnan had tweeted about the incident. According to the statement tweeted by her, the police advised Sarkar not to carry the dafli or wear a red scarf, "as the at mosphere is not good and anything can happen". Talking to PTI on Friday, Sarkar said, "The behaviour of the driver was aggressive and his language was violent. This type of violent language symbolises whatever is going on in the country."

"The driver threatened me that he could have taken me somewhere else, but took me to a police station. I was scared due to his threat. But the driver must have some foundation for giving threat, he said.

Eight quacks

THE FREE PRESS JOURNAL

MUMBAI | SATURDAY | FEBRUARY 8, 2020 www.freepressjournal.in

The central crime detection unit of Thane police on Thursday conducted raids at eight places in Kalwa in Thane and arrested eight bogus doctors who were operating with clinics in the area. The arrested accused have been identified as Alok Singh (39), Ramjit Gautam (47), Gopal Bishwas (47), Ramtej Mohan Prasad (50), Subhashchand Yadav (47), Jayprakash Vishvakarma (40), Deepak Biswash (47) and Satyanarayan Bind (40). They were produced in the court and remanded to police custody till February 11. None of the accused had the authentic medical certification that is essential for practicing medicine. The crackdown was conducted by the Maharashtra Council of Indian Medicine and Thane crime branch unit in Waghoba Nagar and Bhaskar Nagar areas in Kalwa. Surprisingly, these doctors were operating in the area for almost two year. Honrao Omkar, police inspector of central crime detection unit of Thane nolice said, "We arrested them red-handed in their clinics while giving medicines. We also found duplicate degree certificates of ayurveda and allopathy and injections and antibioti nedicines in their clinics.

AT REDI village on the Sindhudurg coast, where the livelihood of a majority of its population of 5,500 is depend ent on the Redi port, the arrival of a Singapore flag bulk carrie led district authorities on Friday distribute over 200 N95 masks to local residents amid the coronavirus scare

The cargo ship, Nathan Brandon, arrived at the port on February 5 - While it had travelled to Singapore, Indonesia, South Africa and UAE since last August, sources said that ru-mours about Chinese ciew members being on board led the local residents, many of whom work as loaders and crane operators at the port, refuse to take part in the ship's iron ore loading operations.

The ship is anchored over an hour away from the port, said Customs Superintendent Abhijit Bhise. None of the crew members, whose nationality is unclear, have been allowed to come ashore. While civil surgeon D Chakurkar and Dr Pradeep Awate, a Pune-based epidemiologist who is monitoring coronavirus in the state, said there were no Chinese crew members in the ship, Bhise claimed all 22 crew members were Chinese. Bhise added that the ship was to leave for China after the loading was completed. "We are waiting for a final clearance from the authorities tomorrow-Then the ship will be permitted to start loading." he said-

"Since most of those working at the port are residents of neighbouring villages, information spread that the crew members were Chinese. The vessel had got a medical clearance for all its crew members when they left from the Mumbai port two days ago," he added.
