KDMC hospital runs without food, docs and radiologists

● SWAPNIL MISHRA
Mumbai

The patients admitted at the Kalyan Dombivli Municipal Corporation hospital, the Rukmini Bai Hospital, Kalyan, have been facing severe problems since last three months.

The patients are denied proper food and left to depend on their relatives. There is no full-time physicians and radiologists. There have been no regular sonography check ups and in the hospital.

Dr. Ashwini Patil, The Chief Medical Officer (CMO) said that she was not aware of these developments and since it is a government hospital, the patients should have been provided with the food.

Many complaints have been filed by the patients and their relatives regarding unavailability of doctors at night and they do not have radiologists for performing a sonography.

"The hospital does not provide the basic facilities to the patients. No food is given to the patients and the hospital premises are always dirty. Despite several complaints, no action has been taken against the hospital authorities," said Ramesh Jain, a relative of a patient.

Most of the pregnant women were asked to go all the way to the King Edward Memorial (KEM) hospital at Parel and Lokmanya Tilak General Municipal hospital at Sion for their sonography tests.

"I have been asked by the doctors to go to KEM or Sion hospital for my check-up. They claim they do not have a radiologist to do the sonography test," said a patient.

Dr. Patil admitted that that their hospital is facing a shortage of doctors, staff and facilities.

"For the last four to five years we are facing the shortage of staff as most of the doctors here are on contract basis. Once their contract is completed they leave. There are only two doctors working on a full-time basis right now. The other doctors leave due to the mental exertion," added Dr. Patil.

Dr. Patil also said that she has written several letters to her superiors, including the city commissioner and the Mayor. However she has received no response till date.

"Previously too many letters were written and requests were made after which a medical officer was appointed only 20 years later," said Dr. Patil.

Dr. Patil admitted that the higher authorities who are aware of the ground realities have not heeded to her pleas.

Woman kills hubby's second wife, lives with corpse for 2 days

● SURESH GOLANI
Bhayandar

In a horrifying incident which has sent shockwaves in the rural parts of Bhayandar (west), a 36-year-old woman along with her mother-in-law murdered the second wife of her husband at their tenement in Morva village on 9th May. The deceased has been identified as Geeta Santosh Jadhav (32).

The police have arrested Savita (36) and their mother-in-law Vatsala Baban Jadhav (55) for their involvement in the crime.

Shockingly the corpse lied in the house for two days, before the husband-Santosh Jadhav who operates a travel agency came back home after a tour on May 11 and informed the police about the incident.

Initially the women tried to misguide the police by claiming Geeta had had died after meeting with an accident.

Post mortem reports, however, flagged deep injury marks hinting at physical torture before death, following which the police detained the duo for questioning. After rounds of sustained interrogations, the women finally confessed to the crime.

After tying the knot for the second time with Savita, both the women had been living with Santosh and their children under the same roof for the past couple of months. Investigations revealed that quarrels over petty domestic issues between the women was a regular affair. However, a war of words on the fateful night took a violent turn with both the accused mounted an assault on Geeta who was apparently pushed to the ground that resulted in a fatal blow to her head, police said.

"We have arrested both the women and booked them for murder and other relevant sections of the IPC. Both have been remanded to police custody," confirmed, Senior Police Inspector Rajendra Kamble. Further investigations were on.

AROUND THE STATE

Drug peddler held with Meow Meow worth Rs 1.10 lakh

MUMBAI: The Azad Maidan Unit of Anti Narcotics Cell (ANC) has arrested a 48-year-old drug peddler from Dongri area and recovered 55 gram of Meow Meow or Mephedrone or MD drugs from his possession worth Rs 1.10 lakh on Tuesday. The accused has been identified as Abdul Gani Abdul Latif Jeevani alias Papa Bakree. He was on our radar for long time and we were waiting to catch him red handed. He is a history sheeter and cases have been registered against him at different police stations of Mumbai including Nagpada," said an officer from ANC. The officer further added that Bakree is into horse-cart business to avoid being suspected as drug peddler. He has been booked under various sections of Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act. Further investigations are underway.

BMC runs drive to check use of contaminated ice

MUMBAI: Tightening its noose around street vendors and hawkers using contaminated ice, the Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) has destroyed around 120 tonne of such ice blocks under its drive in the last one month, a senior civic official said on Tuesday.

The drive was launched last month after civic chief Ajay Mehta took a review of health measures taken by the BMC ahead of the monsoon season. "Outbreak of diseases like gastroenteritis and diarrhoea are directly linked to consumption of contaminated water (ice) at restaurants, street food stalls," said the official from health department.

"After the review, the commissioner directed ward officials to take cognisance of rising number of cases of diarrhoea and gastroenteritis. We then formed teams along with Food and Drug Administration officials last month," the official said. The teams inspected stalls set up by street vendors and hawkers and destroyed on spot such contaminated ice, which was stored, the officer added.

Producer Tapkir's suicide: Cops arrest widow, two brothers for mental torture

● AGENCIES
Pune

Barely two days after Marathi film-maker Atul B Tapkir's death, the Pune police on Tuesday arrested his widow and her adopted brothers on charges of abetment to suicide, an official said here.

"They have been arrested from their residences in Khed and Kondwa areas of the city on Tuesday and charged with Indian Penal Code Sections 306, 34 pertaining to abetment to suicide, common intent, etc," investigating officer R.A. Patel of the Deccan Gymkhana police station said.

In his suicide post, the film producer had blamed his wife and two Gavhane brothers for his extreme step, saying she constantly quarreled with him and threw him out of their home six months ago and kept him from meeting their children

Those nabbed include his widow Priyanka Atul Tapkir (30), and her adopted brothers Kalyan Gavhane and Balu Gavhane.

The arrests follow a complaint lodged against them on Monday by Bajirao Tapkir, Atul's father. The arrested would be presented before a court later in the day, Patel said.

On May 14, Tapkir (35) posted a 'suicide' note on Facebook before consuming a poisonous substance and ending his life in a locked room of Hotel President in the posh Deccan Gymkhana area of the city.

After the post went viral, the hotel authorities summoned the police, who broke open the room door to recover his body lying on the bed.

In his 'suicide' post, Tapkir had blamed his wife and the two Gavhane brothers for his extreme step, saying she constantly quarreled with him and threw him out of their home six months ago and kept him from meeting their children.

He also accused the Gavhane brothers and some others of threatening and thrashing him at his wife's instigation, which was also corroborated by his father Bajirao Tapkir in his police complaint.

Three nabbed for duping businessman of ₹9 lakh

● SURESH GOLANI
Bhayandar

Sleuths of the Mira Road police have arrested three people who duped a local businessman who wanted to earn some quick money by illegally offering new currency notes in exchange of demonetised currency of higher value.

An FIR in this context was registered at the Mira Road police station in March, 2017. However, the kingpin is still at large.

According to the police Shabbir Bharman was lured into handing over Rs 9.5 lakh in new currency by a quartet in exchange of old currency worth Rs 11.5 lakh. After taking the new currency, the accused fled the spot, the complaint said.

Following investigations, a police team led by PSI Mahesh Kuchekar under the instructions of Sr PI Jagdish Shinde nabbed a suspect early this month. Rounds of sustained interrogation led to the arrest of his two accomplices identified as Imran Syed (22) and Iqbal Khatri (24), both residents of Mumbai.

However the prime accused identified as Bhai Jaan has managed to evade the police dragnet. The accused are believed to be cronies of an influential political leader of the region, sources said. A case under Section 420 and 34 of the IPC has been registered in the context.
