TMC and GM conjured to attract my convoy, says Bengal BJP chief

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
KOLKATA, NOV 14:

BJP leader Dilip Ghosh on Monday said TMC chief Mamata Banerjee and senior TMC leader Sudhindra Mukherjee were trying to attract his convoy.

Addressing a press conference, he said, “We have been informed that the TMC chief Mamata Banerjee and her party are trying to attract our convoy to their fold. We have been informed about this from multiple sources. They are trying to lure us with material benefits. We are not scared. We are a party of principles.”

The BJP leader also claimed that the Trinamool Congress had been recruiting agents to bring about a change in his party’s vote share in the state.

Significantly, the TMC president at a recent public meeting in West Midnapore had claimed that the BJP was trying to poach his party’s leaders. It is understood that the BJP has been mobilising TMC leaders for its own agenda.

The BJP leader also claimed that the TMC leaders were trying to poach his party’s leaders in order to attract their vote share.
