38°C: Mumbai goes through another heatwave

Express News Service
Mumbai, May 27

IN NO respite, the India Meteorological Department (IMD) sounded a fresh heatwave alert in Mumbai as well as its neighbouring districts on Wednesday as maximum temperatures surpassed 38 degrees in pockets during the day.

Despite the light spell of showers that swept the region over the weekend, the Mumbai Metropolitan Region (MMR) has been sweltering under hot and humid conditions with day time temperatures hovering around 35 degrees.

On Wednesday afternoon, the IMD sounded a fresh heatwave in Mumbai as well as districts of Konkan region including Thane, Palghar and Raigad. While alluding to the possibility of hot and humid temperatures, the weather bureau also stated the likelihood of light to moderate rainfall with thunderstorms. Data from the IMD showed that Mumbai's Santacruz and Colaba observatories recorded over 35 degrees on the mercury scales on Wednesday. During the same period, pockets of Mumbai like Ram Mandir recorded 38.7 degrees, while Byculla recorded 37.8 degrees, followed by 36 degrees at the Vilepar station, 35.5 degrees in Vidyavihar and 34.6 degrees in Chembur and Dahir. Meanwhile, the IMD observatory in Thane logged 36.2 degrees. The spike in temperatures in Mumbai comes at a time when several pockets of Maharashtra are also reeling under a red heatwave alert with temperatures surpassing 40 degrees across cities like Nagpur, Wardha, Gadchiroli, Chandrapur, Parbhani, Gondia, Malappuram among others.

Maheesh Palawat from Sky-met Weather Services attributed the current hot spell to dry weather conditions. "Currently, there is no moisture incursion and systems like troughs owing to which the weather is predominantly dry across the country. Such conditions are likely to prevail over the next couple of days, following which, the west coast including Mumbai may experience light rain activity," Palawat told The Indian Express.

Previously, the weather bureau had issued a heatwave in Mumbai on May 15 with temperatures surpassing 38 degrees. In coastal regions like Mumbai, a heatwave is sounded when maximum temperatures registers a departure of 4.5 to 6.4 degrees above the normal for a consistent period while a severe heatwave is sounded when normal temperatures are surpassed by 6.5 degrees Celsius.

While no heatwave has been issued for Thursday, the city will continue to experience hot and humid temperatures until Friday morning with the IMD placing Mumbai and its neighbouring districts under a yellow warning. According to the forecast bulletin, temperatures will oscillate between 34 - 35 degrees till May 30, following temperatures are likely to dip.

The dip in temperatures will be coupled with partly cloudy skies over the weekend, according to meteorologists.

BMC panel stalls clearance of 6 proposals after Opp backlash

Pratik Acharya
Mumbai, May 27

THE BRIHANMUMBAI Municipal Corporation's (BMC) improvements committee stalled the clearance of six key proposals on Wednesday after the opposition leaders, including the Congress and Shiv Sena (UBT) opposed clearance of the proposal.

One of the six key proposals included handing over of Mumbai's Seven Hills hospital to a private player for its operation and maintenance.

Seven Hills was one of the key healthcare facilities in Mumbai with a 1,500 bed capacity that has been lying dormant since 2018, after the previous contractor responsible for the hospital's operation and maintenance failed to oblige by the terms and conditions.

After this proposal was listed in the civic body's agenda earlier this month it drew criticism from the opposition parties.

After the proposal was tabled on Wednesday, it was referred back by the Maharashtra legislature committee. Another key proposal was appointing an agency for running the civic owned blood banks in Mumbai. The proposal also stated that the BMC appointed agency will charge Rs 1,100 from beneficiary citizens.

When these proposals were tabled for clearance on Wednesday they were referred back to the administration by the committee panel. Committee chairperson Sandhya Doshi told The Indian Express that even though the proposals have been referred back, it would be tabled again for clearance.

"We have referred back the proposals strictly on technical grounds and there has been no political pressure. In the seven's hills position, there was some ambiguity given by the contractor on the basis of treatment rates. So we have asked the administration to review it and then send the proposal back to the committee for clearance," Doshi told Express.

However, the opposition leaders cited these moves of cancelling the tenders as an impact of their creating pressure on the administration.

"Today these proposals have been sent back, they have to be scrapped...," said Sena UBT MLA Aaditya Thackeray in a post in social media site X.
