ACCORDING to some former cell-mates, it was Mahipal Mohanlal, who was imprisoned for one and a half years for the 1993 Bombay blasts, who tipped off the B fuera Womens Prison staff on the situation. He was about to complete his sentence when the BＤWomen’s prison staff assaulted him in an alleged assault by jail staff.

He had refused to imagine playing the role of a prisoner in his formative years, and even as a former prisoner, he could not believe that he would ever have to share a cell with any mortal prisoner after attaining his freedom.

The food is so filthy that it is impossible to eat. He is not even allowed to eat food for three days, but even when he tried to eat food, he was threatened by the guards. He was also given food from another prisoner, and the manner in which he was given food was very disturbing. He was told that he should eat the food as soon as possible, and if he didn’t, he would be fined. He was also told that he should not eat the food with his hands, or else he would be fined.

Mohans diet has been restricted to specific food items, and he is not allowed to eat food from other prisoners. He is also not allowed to eat food from other inmates. He is given food in a specific manner, and he is not allowed to eat food from other prisoners. He is also not allowed to eat food from other inmates.
