SC to set up Constitution bench to hear petitions

At a Glance

- Details of SC petitioning: Latest on the SC’s move to set up a Constitution bench to hear petitions.

Key Points

- The Supreme Court has decided to set up a Constitution bench to hear petitions related to constitutional matters.

Background

- The move follows the Supreme Court’s December 31, 2013, order to form a Constitution bench of nine judges to hear constitutional petitions.

Salient Points

- The Constitution bench will be headed by Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi.

Immediate Impact

- This move is likely to have a significant impact on the legal landscape in India, as it will allow for a more comprehensive and detailed examination of constitutional issues.

Current Status

- The Supreme Court has already announced the names of the judges组成 the Constitution bench.

Next Steps

- The bench is expected to begin hearing cases in the coming months.

Conclusion

- The setting up of a Constitution bench is a significant development in the judicial history of India, and is expected to lead to more balanced and equitable decision-making in the country.